CA' BORIN LIBRARY

In Ca' Borin you find three libraries of the Social sciences area: Economics, Geography and Newspaper Libraries.

Looking for books and journals? Search our OPAC (online public access catalogue) on the computer beside the Information desk.

If you do not know how to use the catalogue, ask a librarian to help you.

Books and journals are on open shelves.

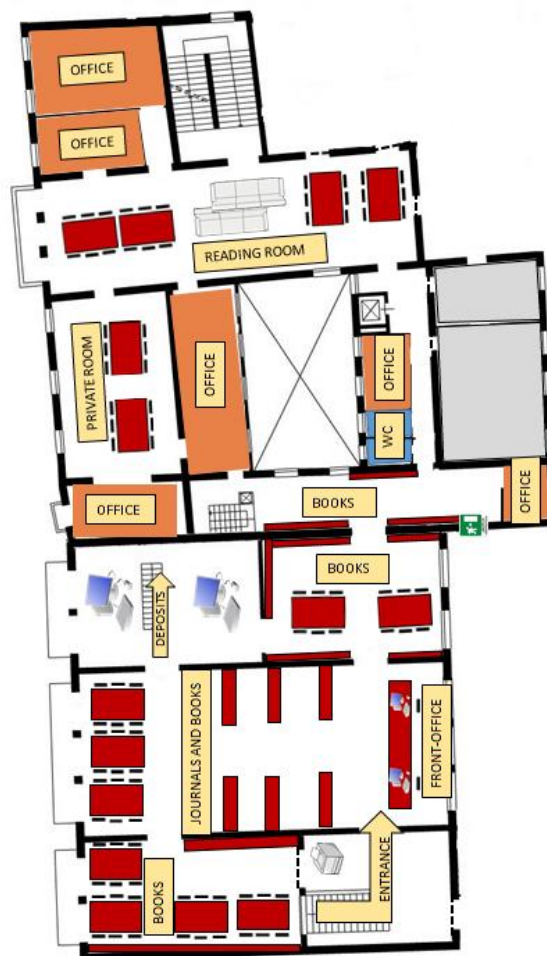

Current issue are on the first-floor shelves and they are placed in alphabetical order. Back issues are on the ground floor.

- Journals and magazines cannot be borrowed, you can photocopy them according to copyright laws, only for personal use and research.
- The same rule are applied to the printing and downloading of electronic journals and other copyrighted materials.
- Reading rooms are on the first floor of Ca' Borin building. If you need to take a break longer than 10 minutes, please do not leave your belongings as placeholders.

If you cannot use the stairs, please contact us and ask to use the lift.

* Please note: library paper materials can be freely read in the library. Other services are intended for institutional users and users with a SBA card.

SERVICES

Document delivery service (article requests)

If you didn't find in Padova libraries what you were looking for, you can use the NILDE Document Delivery service. Through this service, Ca' Borin Libraries supply their users with copies of documents, such as journal articles, book chapters etc, not available in Padova.

Catalogue

Looking for books and journals? Search our OPAC (online public access catalogue) on the computer beside the Information desk.

Computers

Ca' Borin Libraries have 20 computers connected to the web and to the University network (for the access to electronic resources). Access is limited to institutional users (unipd.it) and each user is allowed no more than 120 minutes per day.

WiFi - Eduroam

If you prefer to use your laptop, tablet, smartphone etc, you can connect to the Eduroam Wi-Fi net, a world-wide roaming access service. Eduroam offers a wireless connection to the internet for free, which is safe and easy. In this case, if you want to access Padova University electronic resources, you need to activate the proxy service.

Copying and printing service

In order to use the Myprint copying and printing service, you need to register on the Myprint website using your university card. Photocopy and printouts of library materials are allowed for personal use and study according to copyright regulations.
